Re: U.S. v. Abraxas J. Discala, et al., 14-CR-00399 (ENV)
Defendant Darren Ofsink's Request to Travel

Dear Judge Vitaliano:

We represent Defendant Darren Ofsink in the above-referenced matter. Mr. Ofsink respectfully requests the Court's permission to travel outside the geographical areas set as a condition of his bail. The Government and Pretrial Services do not take a position in regard to Mr. Ofsink's request to travel.

Specifically, Mr. Ofsink requests permission to travel with his wife to the University of Michigan for parent weekend for their daughter who is a freshman. Mr. Ofsink is requesting permission to depart New York on Friday, November 2, and return on Sunday, November 4, 2018. Mr. Ofsink and his family will be staying at the Comfort Inn in Ann Arbor, Michigan, and his complete travel itinerary, as well as his contact information, will be provided to Pretrial Services in advance of the trip.

As stated above, we have communicated with AUSA Shannon Jones and Pretrial Officer Mallori Brady, and neither will take a position regarding this request.

Thank you for your consideration regarding this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
Christopher Bruno
